1. This is a petition made by a driver of the truck for return of goods which have been seized. The petition was rejected. It appears that the goods belonged to a Company and have been transported by a truck. Neither the owner of the goods nor the owner of the truck has been claiming the goods. The petition by a driver could not have been entertained. Advocate for the petitioner states that consigner desires to make an application. Learned Advocate has no locus to make such a statement. In any way the goods may not be auctioned for a period of one week. Application rejected.
